

A Hooker's World

I Only Have Eyes For You

by Hooker Leo

I obtained this yarn for free; I just love the color and I thought it would make a nice scarf. I only used two of the three skeins I had; perhaps I should've added the third just to be rid of it. After I was done, I sewed in the ends, had Parmesaner model it for me and turned it in as a donation to El Segundo Slip Stitches charities.

Due to our - what I presume to be - fake mutual crush with Parmesaner, I chose to name the project I Only Have Eyes For You by The Flamingos.
