A Hooker's World

Night And Day
by Hooker Leo

One of my favorite songs is Night And Day, by Cole Porter, performed by U2 from the album Red, Hot +Blue: A Tribute to Cole Porter. I finally was able to obtain the song for my own listening pleasure and decided to create this scarf as homage.

This filet crochet pattern is based on a 3x3 grid, not your normal 4 x 3 grid, so that every square represents 3 double crochet versus 4.

Materials

- 2 Skeins Universal Deluxe Worsted Superwash (Marigold & Twilight)
- US H/8 - 5.0 mm Crochet Hook
- Tapestry Needle
- Snippers

Finished Size

6 X 79 inches (excluding fringe)

Legend

ch = chain

dc = double crochet

Instructions

Ch 31 + 3 (counts as dc).

Row 1: Dc in fifth chain from hook and across (31 dc). Ch 3, turn at the end of every row.

Follow chart on following page, remembering that each vertical line is a dc; filled squares are filled with 1 dc; empty squares are filled with 1 ch.
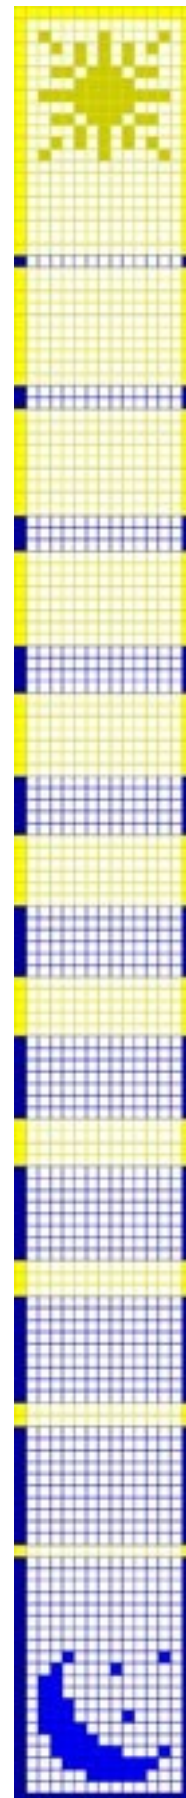

Notes

Reminder: after turning, your first dc will be in the second st of each row, as the ch 3 counts as a dc and occupies the first st of each row.

Each row measures .25 inches. For a shorter scarf, start by crocheting only two grid rows after the emblem versus the charted eight rows. This should shorten the scarf by 12 rows, equaling 3 inches. Next adjustments should start with the larger rows of grid first.

Example: replacing the 10 rows with 9 and following the decrease would shave of another 5 inches.

In essence, your chart would go from…

1 / 10 / 2 / 9 / 3 / 8 / 4 / 7 / 5 / 6 / 6 / 5 / 7 / 4 / 8 / 3 / 9 / 2 / 10 / 1

to

1 / 9 / 2 / 8 / 3 / 7 / 4 / 6 / 5 / 5 / 6 / 4 / 7 /3 / 8 / 2 / 9 / 1 and so on...
